Pair jailed for 56 years for murder

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

TWO men received minimum jail sentences totalling 56 years on Friday for murdering father-of-three Atul Shah in a sadistic failed robbery.

Kyle Pitchford-Price, 23, of Dovehouse Hill, Luton and Luke West, 23, of Abbots Wood Road, Luton, who had both previously been found guilty of Mr Shah's murder, were jailed for life at Luton Crown Court.

Pitchford-Price was given a minimum term of 30 years and West a minimum term of 26 years, along with concurrent 13 year sentences for conspiracy to rob. Pitchford-Price was also handed a concurrent two year sentence for conspiracy to pervert the course of justice.

Their victim, 47-year-old Atul Shah, was bound and savagely beaten to death by the two, who had spent the night of January 6 bingeing on drink and drugs before forcing entry to his Crescent Road flat in Luton in a bid to steal cash and the 20 cannabis plants he was growing.

They bound his hands and feet, kicking and punching him before the violence intensified and Pitchford-Price smashed an exercise weight into his mouth. He was left with a fractured eye socket, lacerations to his neck and had chemicals poured over his face.

Judge Richard Foster, the Recorder of Luton, told Pitchford-Price and West: "I am satisfied you were both in it together and both inflicted violence. The attack must have gone on for 30 minutes or more."

He added that Pitchford-Price showed no remorse.

Pitchford-Price's girlfriend, Corrina Armstrong, 21, also of Dovehouse Hill, Luton, was sentenced to two and a half years in prison for conspiring to commit a burglary and conspiring to pervert the course of justice.

VICTIM: Atul Shah was tortured and killed at his Crescent Road flat in Luton

Man shot in Luton

AN investigation has been launched after a man was shot in Luton yesterday.

Police officers and paramedics were called to Cambridge Street at 12.25pm after the man was shot in the arm. He is now in stable condition in hospital.

Scene guards in place on Strathmore Road were stood down yesterday afternoon as Bedfordshire Police focussed its investigation on Cambridge Street.

Detective Inspector Aaron Kiff said the shooting was being treated as an 'isolated incident' but increased police patrols would be operating to reassure the community.

Anyone with information is urged to call Bedfordshire Police on 101.

Brexit round two

A COUNCIL committee is urging the town's MPs to call for another referendum on Brexit.

The local authority's finance review group has recommended MPs Gavin Shaker and Kelvin Hopkins put pressure on the government for a second referendum - after considering how Brexit could affect the council's coffers.

The proposal could be approved at a full council meeting on Tuesday.

Councillor Franks told LoS: "We keep getting told 'Brexit means Brexit' which is meaningless nonsense. We want to see another referendum when the terms of the exit are known, so that people can make a reasonable judgement."

Luton South MP Mr Shaker said he would prefer a general election over a referendum.

Tip closure plan back on the agenda after idea rubbished

BY NICK SMITH
nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

PROPOSALS to partially close council rubbish tips have hit a snag, after the council's scrutiny board urged Luton Borough Council to rethink its plans.

On Monday, the council's overview and scrutiny committee agreed to a proposal asking executive members to rethink their plans to close the town's two tip sites one day a week and reduce the opening hours on the days they will remain open.

Accusing the Labour-run Council of 'planning to make the town dirtier than it already is' Liberal Democrat leader, David Franks, said his colleagues think Labour has lost sight of the basic housekeeping necessities.

"They want people to recycle more of their waste and so they've decided to make recycling more difficult, how logical is that?"

"The officer report they were considering said reducing the opening hours of the two council recycling centres would not save money and may lead to more fly-tipping. But they are going to do it anyway.

"It's the latest part of Labour's plan to make our town even dirtier than it already is."

The overview and scrutiny board has recommended that the council reconsider opening hours after a six months trial period if there is any evidence of an increase in fly tipping.

Labour Cllr Tom Shaw said: "We went out to public consultation on this and we're doing what the public want us to do."

"We're doing well on cracking down on fly-tipping and we've got a number of new measures in place to further cut down on the problem.

"I'm that confident in the proposals, that I suggest the six month trial period, so if there are any problems with fly-tipping we can go back to it and look at a plan B."

A decision on the recommendation will be made at Luton Borough Council's Executive meeting tomorrow evening.

Which day of the week do Luton babies like best?

THURSDAY'S child has far to go, according to an old nursery rhyme.

A Luton on Sunday Freedom of Information request, comparing birth data from the last five years, has revealed that babies born at Luton and Dunstable Hospital are most likely to take their first breath on a Thursday.

The figures for each year showed mums are consistently less likely to give birth at Bedford Hospital on a Saturday or a Sunday than a weekday.

If you're an expectant parent with your fingers crossed for a bouncing baby boy, the odds are in your favour as more males than females are born in Luton Hospital on every day of the week.

An average 184 additional boys than girls are registered to Luton Hospital every year.

This compares to Bedford, where an average 59 more boys than girls are born each year.

But hundreds more babies overall make their entrance in Luton - 5289 children were registered with Luton Hospital on their birth certificates between July 2015-July 2016, while 2,774 babies were born at Bedford in the same time period.

The number of mothers choosing Luton Hospital is growing steadily. An extra 146 Luton babies were born in the last twelve months compared to 2011, when 5143 boys and girls were born.

Your chance to own a bit of sporting history

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

A SIGNED 1966 World Cup football shirt will be auctioned off at a charity ball at Luton Hoo Hotel next month.

In this 50th anniversary year of England winning the World Cup in 1966, the shirt will be sold in aid of the A-T Society - a charity supporting people born with the rare, neurodegenerative disease Ataxia-Telangiectasia.

William Davis, the society's chief executive, said: "You will have a great evening in a fantastic venue, a chance to buy a bit of sporting history and the knowledge that you are bringing hope to families with A-T across the UK and beyond."

The shirt has been signed by nine of the 22 members of the famous England squad who won the 1966 World Cup at Wembley Stadium, where they defeated West Germany 4-2 to lift the famous Jules Rimet trophy.

Signees include goalkeeper Gordon Banks, George Cohen, Jack Charlton, Alan Ball, Nobby Stiles, Roger Hunt, Martin Peters and Ray Hurst.

However, the undoubted crown jewel is the signature of striker Geoff

UP FOR GRABS: (l-r) Eve Audis and Sophie Arnold, fundraisers for the A-T Society, which will auction off the World Cup shirt

Hurst, who scored the two crucial extra time goals.

It was donated to the auction by a man named Adam Murry who met a girl with A-T some years ago and has supported the charity ever since.

Ataxia-Telangiectasia affects children born apparently healthy, become more and more physically disabled. They will be using a wheelchair full-time by the age of ten, and have a high risk of developing cancer and lung disease.

Information on how to get your hands of a bit of sporting history is available from the A-T Society's website, atsociety.org.uk/hopeball or by ringing them on 01582 760733.

You Need The Right Diagnosis To FIX

Nerve Pain SCIATIC

Your nerve system is involved in everything your body does, from regulating your breathing to controlling your muscles and sensing heat and cold. Because your nerve system is so critical for your health when things go wrong with it you may experience EXCRUCIATING PAIN and/or some very strange symptoms...

There are three types of nerves in the body:

1. Autonomic nerves. These nerves control the involuntary or partially voluntary activities of your body, including heart rate, blood pressure, digestion, and temperature regulation.

2. Motor nerves. These nerves control your movements and actions by passing information from your brain and spinal cord to your muscles.

3. Sensory nerves. These nerves relay information from your skin and muscles back to your spinal cord and brain. The information is then processed to let you feel pain and other sensations.

Because nerves are essential to all you do, nerve pain and damage can seriously affect your quality of life.

What Are the Symptoms of Nerve Pain and Nerve Damage?

With nerve damage there can be a wide array of symptoms. Which ones you may have depends on the location and type of nerves that are affected. Damage can occur to nerves in your brain and spinal cord. It can also occur in the peripheral nerves, which are located throughout the rest of your body.

Autonomic nerve damage may produce the following symptoms:

- Too much sweating or too little sweating
- Lightheadedness
- Dry eyes and mouth
- Constipation
- Bladder dysfunction
- Sexual dysfunction

Damage to motor nerves may produce the following symptoms:

- Weakness
- Muscle atrophy
- Twitching, also known as fasciculation
- Paralysis

Sensory nerve damage may produce the following symptoms:

- Pain
- Sensitivity
- Numbness

- Tingling or prickling
- Burning
- Problems with positional awareness

In some instances, people with nerve damage will have symptoms that indicate damage to two, or even three, different types of nerves. For instance, you might experience weakness and burning of your legs at the same time. To further complicate matters we don't all develop the same way and different unexpected nerves can cause similar problems. This has made it very difficult to diagnose disorders caused by nerve damage based on which nerve "should" cause what.

That is, until now...

Recent advances in technology that detects nerve damage has led to more precise diagnosis for those people suffering with nerve damage disorders.

And more precise diagnosis leads to better results... results which have been published in major medical journals. With data published in 2014 showing success rates as high as 88% some back surgeons are recommending their patients try this treatment first before having back surgery (for nerve damage that leads to back pain and sciatica).

In Bedfordshire, you can get your body scanned for nerve damage the Atlas Wellness Centre.

CALLING FOR JUSTICE: Julian Cole's family have welcomed a decision to refer the arrest of their son to the Crown Prosecution Service. The 23-year-old is in a permanent vegetative state after suffering a 'hangman's fracture' during his 2013 arrest. Five officers could face criminal charges for their actions

Cops could face criminal charges

BY JAMES AVERILL
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

FIVE police officers could face criminal charges after a student was left in a permanently vegetative state following his arrest.

Julian, now 23, was studying sport science at the University of Bedfordshire when he was arrested by officers in May 2013 at a nightclub in Bedford after being asked to leave.

The Independent Police Complaints Commission (IPCC) has now made a referral to the Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) to consider charges over the actions of the Bedfordshire officers, who are also facing gross misconduct proceedings.

The decision follows a three-year investigation into the events surrounding the serious and life-limiting injuries sustained by Julian.

Julian suffered brain damage and a broken neck during his arrest.

Now his family have welcomed the first steps towards getting 'justice for Julian'.

A statement from Julian's mother Claudia after the decision was announced read: "Along with my family, I welcome the IPCC announcement that five police officers will face gross misconduct charges in disciplinary hearings.

"Julian is still alive, but it cannot be said that he is really living.

"We want to see justice for Julian. It will not bring him back, but we hope the CPS makes a swift decision on criminal prosecutions against the officers."

A referral to the CPS is made when the IPCC investigation indicates that a criminal offence may have been committed.

It does not mean that criminal charges will necessarily follow.

AN army veteran has received a £50,000 payout from Bedfordshire Police after he was tased in Luton town centre while suffering a flashback linked to his post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD).

The man, referred to as Michael for legal reasons, served in the army for 18 years and reached the rank of corporal.

He was posted to Northern Ireland and was injured by a hand grenade in Bosnia in 1991.

He subsequently developed mental health issues, including PTSD. In May 2014 he suffered a flashback, became disorientated and hid in bushes near Luton & Dunstable Hospital, believing he was back in the Army.

He successfully launched civil action against the force after being tased by officers despite the situation appearing calm, which exacerbated his mental health issues and meant he was barely able to leave his home.

LoS asked police for a comment but did not receive it in time for our deadline. More at luton-dunstable.co.uk.

Police launch probe after gun shots fired

DETECTIVES are investigating a 'number of lines of enquiry' after shots were fired at a property in Luton.

Police were called to Kestrel Way around 9.30pm on Monday after residents heard gun shots. When officers arrived they found damage to the property and a number of bullet casings, but no-one was injured.

Bedfordshire Police is conducting a 'thorough investigation' and urge anyone with information to call on 101.

'One drug report is one too many'

BY JAMES AVERILL
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

A BURY Park councillor is urging residents to report drug use to the cops – after the area ranked highly for the number of drug incidents reported to the police.

The estate came second only to Luton town centre for the number of drug incidents recorded by police in the town in the last six months.

Since February there have been 66 reports from Luton town centre, with 15 being recorded in Bury Park. High Town and Dunstable town centre both scored 14, while Biscot had 13 reports.

There were 244 recorded across the whole borough.

The figures were obtained from police.uk – which maps out any calls made to police forces.

Tahir Khan, a ward councillor for Bury Park and the town's mayor, has urged residents to report any drug use to the police if they see it.

He said: "Although 15 incidents doesn't look staggeringly high, one is too many. I do get some residents raising concerns, and we take them seriously and liaise with the police.

"We always encourage residents to report these issues to the police if they can.

"I know some people are reluctant to report these kind of things to the police, but you can do it anonymously if you don't want to give your name."

A dash of colour as museum gets refurb

editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

AN internationally renowned artist is keen to keep Wardown Park Museum looking as bright as possible as it is refurbished.

Luton-based Sophie Gresswell is collaborating with a group of local volunteers known as Museum Makers to give the hoarding surrounding the museum an artistic facelift.

Commissioned by Luton Culture, Sophie is a 25-year-old international contemporary painter who uses 'distortion and illusion' as inspiration for her work.

And with the help of the volunteers she is adding a splash of colour to the hoardings, which have been erected around the site during refurbishment works.

Sophie said: "The hoarding artworks are inspired by the museum collections, reflecting the exciting transformation of the museum. It shows the new emerging from the old and spreading its wings."

As well as Museum Makers, Sophie is working with school groups to create part of the design, with the group set to be down at the museum today continuing the work.

The decorated hoardings will remain on show until the museum reopens as Wardown House, Museum & Gallery in the New Year.

Cement mixer collision injures driver

A MAN was airlifted to hospital with a serious head injury after the car he was driving collided with a cement mixer this week.

The East of England Ambulance Service NHS Trust received the 999 call to Stockingstone Lane just after 1.20pm on Tuesday afternoon. An air ambulance was dispatched to the scene where staff provided care to the man, the only reported injury.

He was then flown to Addenbrooke's Hospital by the critical care air ambulance team.

A spokesman from the ambulance Trust said: "We wish him the very best for a speedy recovery."

DOZY PARKERS

Just a circus

WHILE the funfair takes place at Wardown Park, it appears the circus is extending to New Bedford Road running alongside it.

One of these cars was clearly having a laugh when they pulled up to park on the road - and the joke is on the poor driver of the middle car, who wouldn't have stood much chance of negotiating their way out of that space.

BLOGGER OF THE WEEK: Ryad Khodabocus

Planning the Peace Walk

Next Saturday, 300 people are expected to take to the streets in a show of unity for the annual Luton Peace Walk.

Organised by Luton Council of Faiths, planning for the event started back in January.

Organiser Ryad Khodabocus outlines the planning efforts.

The 20th Annual Peace Walk organised by Luton Council of Faiths (LCoF) will be held on September 24 starting at 2pm at the Town Hall War memorial.

The planning and work started way back January bringing together key Faith leaders together and engaging with schools and the community. This year's hosts will be the Shree Ravidaas Bhawan Sikh Temple on Cardigan Street, Luton Central Mosque at Westbourne Road and All Saints Church Shaftesbury Road.

Primary schools responded positively to the school engagement programme set by LCoF last summer term. Over two thousand pupils benefitted especially in the school assemblies with Religious Education (RE) theme 'what will make our town more respectful?' in a BBC style show. This is ground breaking work done in Luton having panels of local faith leaders to mainly demonstrate how they are working together for the common good hence providing an alternative to the negative portray of the media focussing only on wars and extremism. Tough questions were encouraged for pupils to ask like 'When will religions Unite, why to you argue or fight? Do you always agree? Why are we different? etc.'

Many schools also joined as a collective in the Character and value Development Workshop watching kung fu Panda movie following by a discussion of what lessons could be learnt and practically applied on ones life journey. The most iconic activity is the 'Breath of the Compassionate' mosaic tile artwork made from scratch and led by Artist-Potter Moriam Grillo with a William Morris inspired theme. Children learnt about William Morris and come with inspired drawings to be printed on the tiles. The sessions cut across art, history, geography, maths and science showing to the children combining arts, culture and sciences into a beautiful piece of art. Nearly 5000 pieces of tiles were made with communities across town also partook also in this activity with great enjoyment at the end of summer.

The Peace walk day will be a showcase of these great community works and many more and giving participants an opportunity to expand their horizon by also visiting a place of worship they would probably never had a chance to visit and asking questions. Great hospitality is expected on the day sharing cultures and blending into British traditions at All Saints Church with a galore of activities from unveiling the mosaic in the new developed Peace Garden and looking at community allotment; to letting one's little Robin hood dream come true by having a go at the Archery by local community coaches from shooting stars; and to experience powerful stories of wisdom by local storyteller Eleanor Martin from Khayaal theatre.

BLUE SKIES: KeechFest attracted hundreds of people last weekend

13,000 thank yous

THANK you to the 1,500 people who helped Keech Hospice Care celebrate its 25th Anniversary at KeechFest on Sunday, September 11, 2016.

It was a fantastic party!

As I sat in the afternoon sun listening to the wonderful array of music acts performing on the Keech Main Stage, it felt very special to see so many people having fun and supporting their local hospice. After all, as I say, Keech Hospice Care is YOUR hospice.

We would simply not be celebrating 25 years of excellent care if it was not for our community who, throughout the years, have taken ownership of Keech Hospice Care and raised the vital funds it takes to ensure the charity's survival. As the adult hospice for Luton and South Beds and the children's hospice for Bedfordshire, it was great to welcome so many people inside of the hospice to look around and see for themselves all of the excellent services and facilities we provide for seriously ill children and adults.

What's more, it went to prove, Keech Hospice Care is not a bleak and scary place but a hospice full of life - where living really happens and quality of life is paramount.

The total money raised from KeechFest was £13,000.

Thank you again for your support. Please do come and see us at Keech Hospice Care in Luton again soon.

CEO of Keech Hospice Care

Fringe benefits

I COULD not believe my eyes when I picked up Luton On Sunday last week - 660 new homes, and all the council tax goes to the bloody neighbours!

It beggars belief!

As if we don't have enough problems without inheriting someone else's. I do hope the authorities find a solution to this.

The problem with Calais

I READ with interest the letter from Keith Taylor MEP regarding the situation in Calais and the point made that it was a problem for the UK government - wrong.

This is not a new problem that has risen in the last few years. This is a problem that has been caused by the lazy and turn-a-blind eye response of the French Government and authorities that I can remember dating back to pre 2001 when I last used Calais as an HGV driver.

Then it was the odd few that had made it from Southern Italy to the French coast (Calais), and it was here that the Gendarmes would stop the UK truck drivers and ask if they were going to London and could they give the unfortunate with them a lift across on the ferry, passengers in those days travelled free with the truck.

Over the years I have watched with interest this problem develop in Calais and the lack of response by the French Government to not only stop

Honouring the very best of Luton's best

NOMINATIONS for the town's seventh Luton's Best Awards are arriving thick and fast.

The awards, organised by Love Luton and sponsored by Luton on Sunday, are a way to recognise unsung heroes in the town who selflessly go above and beyond expectations. Do you have someone in mind? Let's take a look back at some of last year's winners and remember their inspiring stories:

Service with a Smile Award, Sponsored by Arriva plc

This award is looking for an individual or team employed either in the public, private or voluntary sector that goes above and beyond when it comes to customer service. Their effort and enthusiasm should have a positive effect on its customers and the business/organisation. Last year's winner was Maria Collins a registered nurse set up the organisation Home Instead Luton. She leads by example and is a shining light to the many vulnerable and elderly people who need support.

Best Volunteer Award, Sponsored by Signature Flight Support

This award will recognise a volunteer(s) of any age who has made an outstanding contribution through giving up their own time to volunteer to help others, charities or initiatives across the town. We ask that entries are for individuals still active in their role but you can list all activities they have taken part in prior to 2015/2016. Last year's winner was Darren Woodhouse. He set up Swirl nightclub six years ago for people with learning and physical disabilities. It is attended by more than 100 people each month and is the only club in Bedfordshire of its kind.

Best Fundraiser Award, Sponsored by Basepoint

This award will recognise a tireless charity fund

INSPIRATIONAL: Tony Jules' family collect his award after he lost his battle with cancer raiser/s of any age who has made an outstanding contribution either through their fundraising initiatives, voluntary work or other support. We ask that entries are for individuals still active in their role but you can list all activities they have taken part in prior to 2015/2016.

Tony Jules who sadly lost his battle with cancer in February had raised more than £40,000 to fund a nurse at the Hospice which he named a 'Keech Angel'. Tony was described as a truly inspirational man and dedicated the last few months of his life to fundraising for Keech.

To nominate someone, online visit: loveluton.org.uk/lutonsbestawards or in person collect a form at locations across Luton, including the Town Hall and library. Nominations close on Sunday, October 30.

Bouncer caught by paedo hunter

BY COURT REPORTER
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

A CLUB bouncer who travelled from the north of England to Luton expecting to meet a 14-year-old schoolgirl for sex has been found guilty of attempting to meet a child following sexual grooming.

Heavily-built Shaun Torevell, 48, believed he was having explicit conversations with a schoolgirl over the internet, but in fact it was paedophile hunter Neil Ivall.

When Torevell arrived at Luton railway station on his motorbike, he was greeted by Mr Ivall, from Dunstable, who handed him to police.

Torevell was convicted on Tuesday by a jury at Luton Crown Court of attempting to meet a child following sexual grooming on May 9 this year.

Judge Philip Bartle QC granted him bail while probation reports are prepared, but warned Torevell: "You have been found guilty of an extremely serious offence."

"There is a real likelihood the sentence will be one of immediate custody."

In the witness box Mr Ivall told the jury he set up a fake Facebook account in the name of a 14-year-old called Jenni Johnston, using the picture of a friend when she was that age.

Mr Ivall said he made it clear the girl was 14, offering the defendant a way out.

Torevell said he is not a paedophile and thought he was meeting someone over 18.

The judge set a sentencing date for October 21.

Ofsted finds nursery is making the grade

BY JAMES AVERILL
editor@londonmedia.co.uk

A NURSERY has come from being in special measures to finally being graded 'good' by inspectors.

Three years ago Rothesay Nursery School was found to be 'inadequate' by education watchdog Ofsted.

But within a year of that they had managed to haul themselves out of special measures and now, two years on from their last inspection, they have completed the turnaround by scoring a 'good' grade in the latest visit to the nursery in July.

Her Majesty's Inspector found that the quality of teaching had improved, and also singled out headteacher Janet Brownjohn for her leadership skills.

The report said: "Her high expectations, combined with good-quality support, means these leaders have grown in confidence and are successfully identifying and addressing any weaknesses in their subject areas."

But the nursery school's

SUCCESS: Headteacher Janet Brownjohn celebrates with pupils

modest headteacher is quick to praise her staff, as well as the students and pupils, for the impressive change in fortunes.

She told Luton on Sunday: "We've all just tried to carry on the journey of improving."

"We have a constant drive to think that things are never perfect, they can always be improved."

She added that teachers were helping each other out with tips and sharing advice.

"The whole school is pulling in the same direction," she said. "I'm so proud to be the headteacher of this school, and we'll keep going until we get an outstanding inspection from Ofsted."

Councillor Mahmood Hussain, portfolio holder with responsibility for children and young people at Luton Borough Council, added: "Well done to the staff, pupils and governors."

"I'm confident the school will continue to make a positive impact."

RISING STARS: Bakers William and Charles Eid, joined by George Eustice MP in a recent visit

Baking company is joining upper crust

A DUNSTABLE firm is baking good on its promise to be the best bread manufacturers around.

Signature Flatbreads recently opened a £10million extension to its baking factory on Woodside Industrial Estate.

And the investment has paid early dividends after the business won the Baking Manufacturer of the Year award at the 29th Annual Bakery Industrial Awards.

The night was hosted by Rugby World Cup winner Matt Dawson, who presented the prestigious gong to owners, and brothers, William and Charles Eid.

Charles said: "We are delighted to win the Bakery Manufacturer of the Year award.

"We have an exceptional team of people who are absolutely committed to delivering stand-out bakery products and outstanding customer satisfaction in what is a very competitive marketplace."

"To be recognised for the quality of our work and products means a great deal."

The expansion to the factory will increase the 680 strong workforce by another 200 by 2020.

The firm bakes pitta breads, crumpets, wraps and tortillas and a host of other bread products.

The political map is set to change

IN four years time your vote could be counted in a completely different part of the county – as a review finally begins into the layout of constituency boundaries.

For residents in Luton town centre, not much is set to change. But for residents of Houghton Regis it could be a very different landscape when they head to the voting booth in 2020.

As part of the review taking place in 2018 by the Boundary Commission, a new constituency has been proposed which would add Houghton

AS proposals were first announced this week as to how constituency boundaries could be altered across the country, JAMES AVERILL speaks to two local members of parliament on what the changes could mean – both for residents and themselves

Regis to the area currently called Luton North.

The new constituency, which would be called Luton North and Houghton, is one of the changes put forward in a bid to make each constituency more equal.

The plans would also see the number of MPs in the House of Commons reduced from 650 to 600.

But some of the changes – less the geography, more the politics behind them – aren't too pleasing to one MP.

Gavin Shuker represents Luton South, which would gain the Barnfield ward from the current Luton North constituency, and also bring in Caddington from South West Bedfordshire.

Mr Shuker told Luton on Sunday: "It's now being drawn up on the number of people who are registered to vote rather than population."

"There are two million people who registered to vote during the Brexit campaign, and they are not included in the proposals."

"The numbers will be out of date, which is why we should stop the process. We think it would be better to everyone who lives in a place rather than disenfranchise the poor and vulnerable, who are less likely to register to vote."

"If you want fairer constituencies, we are signed up to that. What we are not signed up to is making it harder for your voice to be heard

BORDER CONTROL: The Boundary Commission for England has drawn up the following changes in the layout of how our parliamentary constituencies could look. Houghton Regis would be moved from the South West Bedfordshire constituency into a new one, to be named Luton North and Houghton because you live in a less affluent area.

"It's going to make it easier to elect Conservatives."

The proposals are drawn up by the Boundary Commission for England (BCE), which is an independent and impartial body.

But the plans are just the start, and will go through three consultation periods over the next two years.

The BCE will make its final recommendations to Parliament in September 2018.

Sam Hartley, secretary to the commission, said: "These are just the Commission's initial thoughts – during the next 12 weeks we want people to take a look and tell us what they like and don't like about our proposals."

Andrew Selous is the MP for South West Bedfordshire.

Under the proposals he would lose Houghton Regis and Whipsnade from his constituency. And his views differ from Gavin Shaker's, in that he feels the scheme is simply about fairness.

He said: "It's quite unsettling actually. No MP wants to lose any part of their constituency because you become quite attached to them."

"So I'm disappointed I would be losing Houghton Regis, but understand why the change is being made."

"It's a matter of simple fairness. The current boundaries were drawn up 20 years ago and are out of date, and population figures are sometimes unreliable."

"Each constituency will have to have between 73,000 and 78,000 registered voters."

"Why should some MPs have twice the amount of constituents, twice the amount of work, but only get one vote? It's simply making things fairer for everyone."

If you want to find out more, a public hearing on the boundary changes is being held at Luton Town Hall on November 7 and 8.

Joel shows his love for Luton

ONE of the UK's most energetic comedians is looking forward to an evening away from 'snobbish' London crowds when he comes to Luton later this month.

Joel Dommett – who you may recognise from Russell Howard's Good News and Reality Bites – told LoS: "I've done bits in Luton before and I've really enjoyed it."

"London crowds can be a bit snobbish while in places like Liverpool they can be a bit territorial, whereas in Luton it's always been really inclusive."

Much of Joel's focus recently has been on TV and film appearances, so this is his first tour in three years.

"That explains the boring title of Joel Dommett - Live," he said, "as it's a combination of all the stand up I've been doing over the last three years."

"I may or may not attempt to sing a song and people might even hear a recording of a rap I did when I was 16."

"I could tour every year but it would be a push and to be honest I'm really glad I've waited."

"I've seen how much I've improved over the years and am really excited for the upcoming shows."

Tickets for the show at the Hat Factory on September 30 are available from lutonculture.com or by calling 01582 878100. Admission is £12 or £10 for concessions. Doors are at 8pm.

Soul star's debut

THROUGHOUT her life, Natasha was surrounded by all genres of music, from reggae to jazz to blues to funk.

With a DJ as a father and a soul-crazy older sister, she really had little choice and she soon became familiar with every rare groove and soul track well before her years.

Natasha exploded on to the UK soul scene in 2012 with 'Show Me' after her first collaboration with Cool Million - featured on the Cool Million III album, which was rapidly followed up with 2 Back 2 U with producer Ric Atari.

This propelled her into great demand for her vocal talents, and her formidable talents were elicited by many well-respected producers and songwriters.

Natasha is playing in Luton for the first time as she promotes her new album Second Time Around with a full backing band.

Supporting on the night is 22-year-old Lutonian Jonathan Morris.

Jonathan is a former member of Farai & The Forest Dawn, winners of a Battle of the Bands Competition in Canary Wharf and he currently plays as a member of the Supertones Jazz Quartet whose debut album 'First Fruit' received great interest on the UK Jazz music circuit. This performance will see Jon making his solo debut at a UK venue.

He plays keyboards and drums and complements these skills with his experience as a composer and producer in the studio.

Advanced tickets for the event are priced £18.00 and are available via The Bear Club website or online at <http://tkl.to/FocusOnJazz>.

Community Cup proves the value of community unity Luton Community Housing football tournament proves a hit yet again

Luton Community Housing's annual Community Cup, in association with Keech Hospice, kicked off on Saturday afternoon.

The event brought eight teams together to compete for Community Cup Champions, representing various organisations including Thrive Tribe, Youthscape and Luton Borough Council. The competition was fierce with the holders LAMP trying to retain their title, even fielding two teams this year. However both of LAMP's teams were just beaten by Signpost's quintet, this year taking the title.

Champions Signposts pose with their trophies

Team Tesco, providing refreshments for the day as well as entering a team themselves, were just beaten to third place by LAMP, with all teams participating in a group phase followed by the knockout phase of the top two teams of each group. The knockout phase consisted of the semi-finalists, final and a third place play-off.

Overseeing proceedings were local organisation Think

Sport, braving the rain to referee all sixteen matches that took place at Venue 360. Meanwhile Impressive Works sponsored the event, supplying the cup for the winning team.

Think Sport, the officials for the tournament have only been established for 18 months but are already giving back to the local community through the medium of Sport.

Think Sport commented: "We thoroughly enjoyed refereeing the tournament and despite the rain it was great to see everybody in good spirits. It was wonderful to see such a diverse mix of cultures coming together to enjoy the football from all different organisations in Luton. A big thank you to everyone who took part and a huge thanks to Daisy Craydon for organising the charitable event and our congratulations go to Signposts, our tournament winners!"

Daisy Craydon, LCH Marketing Officer commented: "After our success in hosting the event last year, it was fantastic to welcome Keech Hospice on board as joint hosts with our now annual event. I would like to thank all of the teams who participated and for Think Sport for providing equipment and officiating. Furthermore I want to say another huge thank you to Tesco for providing the refreshments and Impressive Works for sponsoring us. Congratulations to Signposts on their victory and for all the teams on braving the elements!"

Already there has been interest for next year's competition, with LAMP already plotting to regain the title they just lost out on. This year's champions came from Signposts, a charity dedicated to helping the homeless living in Luton.

There is still time to donate using the Just Giving page link at the bottom of this article. All the money raised will be split between Keech Hospice and Luton Community Housing. Continue to support two great local charities with their vital work in your community!

Lofty ambitions of UK's highest apartments

You'll need a head for heights at this record-breaking new block of flats. When it's finished, the 67-storey and £800m building will be 771ft tall, the highest residential development in the UK and Western Europe.

From its top floors, owners will be rewarded with uninterrupted panoramic views over London, taking in the Thames, Canary Wharf and the City of London.

And because there's evidently no time to stand around waiting to enjoy the sights, Spire London will boast nine instead of the usual four or six lifts. It means busy residents will only have to waste up to 35 seconds waiting for a lift, which will travel up the building at six metres a second.

Of the 861 rooms with a view, 765 will go on sale, including suites, one, two and three bedroom apartments, and three-bedroom duplex penthouses, costing between £595,000 and £3m. Inside, there'll be designer kitchens with breakfast bars, boutique hotel-style bathrooms, walk-in wardrobes and private roof terraces.

Up on the 35th floor, residents can use the spa, swimming pool with infinity edge, Jacuzzi, fitness suite and gym, while they'll also be able to kick back in a club room with cocktail bar, cinema room and community area.

Chinese developer Greenland Group is building the £800m project next to Canary Wharf by 2020, expecting it to attract investors and buyers from the UK and overseas, despite concerns that there's a glut of homes in parts of the capital, with some London house prices slumping following the Brexit vote.

Home to a golfer with a big drive

ARMCHAIR golfers are readying themselves for the excitement and sporting rivalry of the Ryder Cup which tees off later this month.

Americans, including Tiger Woods and Phil Mickelson, will take on their European counterparts, headed by captain Darren Clarke, in a bid to regain the trophy.

They'll be especially keen to conquer, as Europe won for the third successive time at the last biennial clash at Gleneagles in 2014.

Refreshingly, in a sport that's known for its big money prizes, the high-profile Ryder Cup – named after English businessman Samuel Ryder who donated the trophy – is played only for honour as the players won't get a penny in prize money.

Italian golfer Francesco Molinari helped secure one of the recent European wins in 2012 when he halved with Tiger Woods the last singles match on the final day.

The half-point meant Europe won the cup outright.

He was also on the victorious Ryder Cup teams in 2010 and is widely regarded as Italy's best golfer – although like Rory McIlroy he was one of the many who dropped out of the Olympics – and didn't make the cut for this year's tournament on 27 September in Chaska, Minnesota.

Molinari has had a house in London for years but is selling this wide fronted four-bedroom contemporary pad in Chelsea for £3.25m. Set over three floors, it's been completely rebuilt, with a master bedroom suite on the top floor and decked garden accessed from the ground and lower ground floors.

Somewhere to let off steam?

RAILWAY enthusiast and Thomas the Tank Engine author the Reverend W. Awdry was inspired to write about his famous locomotives while lying in bed as a child.

He would hear steam engines powering up the hill at a nearby tunnel from his bedroom at night while growing up at Journey's End during the 1920s. They became stories which Awdry later told to his son Christopher when he was ill with measles and Awdry later went on to write his first book, set on the fictional island of Sodor, in 1945.

Cheeky Thomas has become a British icon for generations of youngsters, who still love the books about derailments and disasters – often brought about by an engine's arrogance, stubbornness, jealousy or ambition.

But in recent years some parents have taken exception to Thomas, branding the books a bad example to youngsters because they make analogies between the Rev's Christian faith; the engines always pay the price if they go off the rails.

Despite this, Thomas is a literary and merchandising phenomenon worth millions which has spawned films, toys, games and clothes and is currently watched by youngsters as Thomas & Friends on TV.

His former home, now named Lorne House in Box, Wiltshire, is run as a boutique bed and breakfast, attracting Thomas-loving visitors from around the world.

It's for sale at £1m with a plaque outside commemorating Rev Awdry's time there from 1920 to 1928. The six bedrooms all have en-suite wet rooms, while there are five reception rooms and a sizeable garden.

Sell now and move by Christmas, says Connells

Connells' Six Week Challenge to sell your home in record time -

Local estate agency Connells are urging homeowners to start marketing their homes now if they want to be moved by Christmas. According to the branch, September is an ideal time to sell your home and by taking advantage of the company's 'Six Week Challenge', customers can successfully sell their property in record time and for the best price.

"September is an ideal time to sell your home," says Will Jones Branch Partner at Connells Stopsley "It's traditionally one of the busiest times of the year for us with the summer holidays over, and buyers returning to the market keen to purchase before the end of the year."

"Our 'Six Week Challenge' – where we use all our expertise and knowledge of the local housing market to help sellers secure a buyer in less than six weeks - has been hugely successful for our customers over the summer months," continues Will. "With even more properties required to meet current buyer demand, we would urge those interested in moving to make the most of a buoyant housing market and put us to the challenge!"

If you are thinking of selling your home, keen to move by Christmas and would like to be considered for Connells' 'Six Week Challenge', please contact the local branch on 01582 737069 or email: Stopsley@connells.co.uk

Hyundai's people pleaser

BY CHRIS RUSSON

Hyundai has taken the wraps off its new i30 hatchback describing it as the new people's car.

Designed, built and tested in Europe, the third generation i30 will be on sale in Britain next spring.

It will make its public debut at the Paris Motor Show later this month.

Speaking at the reveal of the new model at Hyundai's European headquarters in Frankfurt the Korean car maker's chief designer Peter Schreyer described the new i30 as a car which combined practicality with excitement.

The i30's sleek design includes a new look front which will become a feature of all Hyundais in the future.

A larger grille with a more upright stance and sculpted body lines flowing into the side panels are standout characteristics.

A new 1.4-litre turbo petrol engine will be joining the line up and with an output of 140ps it delivers healthy performance statistics of 0 to 60 in less than nine seconds. The new engine will sit alongside a 1.0-litre three-cylinder unit developing 120ps while diesels – which will be as economical as 84mpg with emissions as low as 89g/km – will use Hyundai's current 1.6-litre engine in the states of tune developing between 95 and 136ps.

As well as six speed manual transmission the latest i30 will be available with Hyundai's new seven-speed DCT semi-automatic box.

Onboard connectivity includes Apple CarPlay as well as Android Auto and the dash is centred on an eight-inch high definition touchscreen display.

"We thought about the people who would drive it," said Mr Schreyer, adding that connectivity for all the family now had to be a major factor in car design.

Wireless phone charging will also be available and the new i30 has a full suite of automated driving features such as autonomous emergency braking, pedestrian detection, automatic cruise control, lane departure warnings and a driver fatigue monitor.

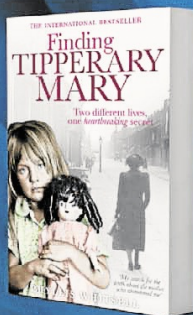

The car sits on a new chassis and is said to be some 10 per cent lighter than the current i30 but 20 per cent more rigid – a feature which will improve handling as well as making it more sturdy.

Changes have also been made to the steering and the suspension and the car has been honed over more than 5,000 miles around Hyundai's test facility where it has completed more than 480 laps of fine tuning. Inside, the trim and finish has been refined and the dashboard smartened up with fewer controls.

COVERCAR

Volkswagen Golf 2.0 Est

Take a look inside. . .

BY JON SMITH

It's unlikely to have the neighbours' curtains twitching for a sneak view - but the Volkswagen Golf Estate is the archetypal family transport that puts practicality and sensibility at the top of the list.

A boxy shape, straight lines and an upright stance are the styling cues here.

But the GTD version has a little secret. Beneath the innocuous bonnet is a punchy 2.0-litre turbo diesel that pumps out a useful 181bhp - sufficient to put a smile on drivers more accustomed to warm hatches or sports saloons.

With lowered suspension, tweaked braking system and oodles of torque, the GTD puts back the fun in family motoring without penalising either economy or carrying capacity.

Despite being capable of despatching the 0-62mph sprint in an eager sub-eight seconds and topping out at 142mph, it will happily return a regular 50mpg on commuter runs.

The turbo diesel packs a generous 280lb/ft of torque which means mid range acceleration is of the thump-in-the-back variety.

Steering is direct and relatively high geared relaying decent road-feel back to the helm. With a relatively heavy front end, it doesn't feel quite as nimble as some petrol models, but there's a reassuringly solid feel about the Golf which holds its own appeal.

Engine noise is well suppressed - better in fact than other VW Group models that use the same unit. There's little need to use high revs because of the ample torque, which helps make it a particularly relaxing car on long journeys.

The six-speed DSG automatic gearbox fitted to the test car is the icing on the cake. Standard fitting is a six-speed manual gearbox.

The twin clutch system - an extra £1,400 - is fast and smooth with imperceptible changes. There's a slight penalty on economy and CO2 emissions but I reckon it is outweighed by ease of driving. If you want greater control, there's a set of paddles to play with on the steering wheel.

The cabin design of the Estate faithfully follows that of the Golf hatch - sensible, solid and smart. The GTD gets a few nice touches of flair such as the traditional tartan trimmed seats and leather-covered steering wheel.

When it comes to luggage space, it's up there with the best - only the cavernous Skoda Octavia estate beats it. With rear seats in place there's 605litres of cargo room.

Lowest mileage MG in the world?

By: David Whinyates

A 2004 MG ZT 1.8 Turbo, with an unbelievable three miles on the clock is set to go under the hammer at a classic car auction later this month. The car is exactly as it left the factory and its owner, who bought it for half price following the collapse of MG Rover, believes that it's the best condition and lowest mileage MG Rover in the world. It will be auctioned at Classic Car Auction's sale on September 24th at the Warwickshire Exhibition Centre where it is expected to fetch between £8,500 and £10,500.

The current and only owner purchased the car from a Derby based dealer who was selling off the cars in 2005. It was then delivered to his farm just outside Silverstone race circuit with only one mile on the clock. The car was immediately placed into storage, initially in a heated garage, subsequently in a Carcoon and latterly in a Car Bag. Amazingly, the owner has driven the car just two miles along the driveway, meaning the mileage now reads only three miles. Finished in British Racing Green, it is in immaculate condition and exactly as it left the Longbridge factory. It still has the original ContiSport tyres and even the same fuel that was put in the tank all those years ago. The 1.8 litre turbocharged Rover K-Series engine is gleaming. The high spec interior, so well preserved there's still a new car smell, features half leather seats, green alcantara door lining, air conditioning and CD player

Retro seven revives swinging sixties

By: David Whinyates

THE Swinging Sixties are being brought back to life by Caterham in the shape of a new throw-back variant of its iconic Seven which was originally on the drawing board in the mid-60's but never launched.

This time-capsule car has been brought to life as the Caterham Seven Sprint and is designed to delight Seven purists with retro detailing and a host of nostalgia-soaked features, including a choice of six paint colours that were original British manufacturer colours available in 1966/67. Many of the new model's features hark back to the legendary Colin Chapman's original Lotus 7 – the fore-runner of today's Caterham Seven – including a powder-coated grey chassis which is period-accurate for a Series 2 Lotus 7. The suspension and rollover bar are also reminiscent of Colin Chapman's original while the flared front wings, polished exhaust silencer and uniquely retro-styled, individual rear lights all hark back to the early days of the Seven. The retro feel continues in the cockpit with a wooden-rimmed sports steering wheel and dashboard in wood effect plus interior panels and upholstery hand-stitched and finished in striking scarlet red. Priced at £27,995, however, the Sprint has a very 21st century price tag even though there are very few concessions to modern life, the main one being the three-pot 80hp Suzuki engine which was originally installed in Caterham's entry-level Seven 160 model.

The launch of the Sprint heralds the start of Caterham's '60 years of the Seven' celebrations, which will culminate with a spectacular festival next summer. To reflect the anniversary further, only 60 of the factory-built Sprints will be destined for the UK and European markets. Says Caterham Cars CEO, Graham Macdonald: "We have always prided ourselves on continually developing the Seven during the 44 years we have been custodian of the model." "But we never wished to dismiss our heritage either and I know there are plenty of Seven purists and aficionados out there who will really appreciate the level of detail we've gone to with the Sprint to resurrect the spirit of those early cars." "It's a car that has been built today, with all the benefits that modern engineering brings with it, but the essence of the swinging '60s and is the perfect precursor to our 60th-anniversary celebration in 2017."

VOLKSWAGEN UPIS THE ELECTRO ANTE

By: David Whinyates

ALL-electric motoring is now available for little more than £20k with the arrival of the electrically-powered version of Volkswagen's up! city car. With its 82 PS electric motor the e-up! boasts a peak torque figure of 210 Nm, equating to a 0-62 mph time of 12.4 seconds and a top speed of 80 mph with a maximum range of around 93 miles between charges. Power is provided by a lithium-ion battery pack located within the car's floor mated to a single-speed gearbox. The battery weighs 230 kg but, despite this, the e-up! still weighs less than its internal combustion-engined sibling, tipping the scales at 1,139 kg thanks to extensive weight-saving measures. The necessary variety of charging cables includes a fast charge connection which allows for up to 80 per cent of the battery's capacity to be replenished in just 30 minutes. Meanwhile, a full charge from a standard household plug takes nine hours. Customers can purchase an optional wall box for home garage use, which provides a 3.6 kW supply and can recharge a battery in six hours. The e-up! comes with an extensive line-up of standard equipment including electronic air conditioning, cruise control, parking sensors plus auto activation for the wipers and headlights. Fresh styling features for the five-door electric version include beefier front bumpers which house LED running lights and a more angular back bumper which includes a prominent diffuser panel alongside a sharper tail light design. Like its conventionally-powered stablemate the e-up! features an innovative smartphone docking station which enables the driver's phone to be turned into the car's infotainment system. The smartphone can be used to select and play music, or as a navigation system. It can even display key systems data and tips from the Volkswagen Think Blue Trainer which coaches a driver in efficient driving techniques. The new e-up! is priced at £20,780 including the Government Plug-in Car Grant of £4,500. Deliveries are expected to begin in October. Alternatively it's available from £275 per month on a Personal Contract Purchase (PCP) scheme, with a £900 deposit contribution. Volkswagen says that together with the all-electric e-Golf and hybrid versions of the Golf and Passat, the arrival of the e-up! represents the start of a significant acceleration toward electro-mobility for the German company with 30 more electric or plug-in hybrid models due to be launched by 2025.

MORE CIVIC DUTIES FOR SWINDON

By: David Whinyates

THE latest Honda Civic Hatchback will make its global motor show debut at the Paris Motor Show in late September and provide a significant boost for the company's plant at Swindon where it will be built for worldwide distribution. It's the tenth edition of Honda's top-selling model and the company says it has undertaken the most comprehensive research and development programme in its history before putting the car into production. Set to go on sale across Europe early next year, it will be showcased alongside the latest incarnation of the Turkish-built Civic saloon. Honda is keeping full details quiet until the car is revealed and has so far only released a teaser picture of the car's rear end. Philip Crossman, managing director at Honda UK, says: "... the introduction of the new Civic heralds a new era for the plant in Swindon, as it will become the global manufacturing hub for the British-built Civic hatchback, and we are in a fantastic position going forward."

X MARKS THE SPOT FOR NEW MOKKA

By: David Whinyates

THE SUCCESS of Vauxhall's Mokka compact SUV may well have surprised many – possibly including its makers – and now there's a new model which the company hopes will further increase its popularity to British buyers. Designated the Mokka X, it's the first Vauxhall to introduce the "X" segment identifier which will also be used on future Vauxhall SUV and crossover vehicles. It will arrive in showrooms from October following its debut at the Geneva Motor Show later this month with prices from £17,590 and diesel models starting from £19,515. The Mokka has proven to be a huge success for Vauxhall since its introduction in 2013, surpassing 120,000 sales in the UK since its launch, and is currently number one in its segment. The Mokka X has been given a bold new look by a design team led by Brit Mark Adams with a more solid and muscular stance. On the inside, there's a completely new dashboard inspired by the new Astra. The centre stack has been redeveloped completely around the seven- and eight-inch touchscreens of the new generation infotainment systems. Now with fewer buttons, it has many functions that are accessible via the touchscreen. The new Mokka X introduces a new powertrain to the segment, adding the 1.4-litre Direct Injection Turbo (152PS) petrol unit to the range in addition to the much-lauded 1.6-litre diesel engine introduced last year. The 1.4-litre Turbo is available with manual or six-speed automatic transmission, as well as adaptive all-wheel drive and start/stop. The petrol engine can achieve up to 47.1mpg combined and CO2 emissions of 140g/km.

High tech features will include LED Adaptive Forward Lighting (AFL) headlamps which adapts the headlights' lighting patterns automatically to the driving situation to give the best possible light performance without dazzling other road users. It features nine different functions, with the new LED system replacing the previous BiXenon AFL. The new Mokka X will be available with the personal connectivity and service assistant, OnStar, from launch. The system offers customers a broad range of safety and comfort services, including access to a trained advisor 24/7, 365 days a year. It also turns the Mokka X into a 4G mobile Wi-Fi hotspot, allowing up to seven devices, from smartphones to tablets, to be connected simultaneously. In addition, two versions of the new generation IntelliLink infotainment system will make their debut in the Mokka X bringing the world of smartphones to the car via both Apple CarPlay and Android Auto phone projection.

PEUGEOT'S HIGH-TECH SUV REVEALED

By: David Whinyates

THE SUV onslaught on Europe's roads will gather pace next year with the arrival of the all-new PEUGEOT 5008. With seven seats, its makers claim that the new 5008 is the first SUV to offer modularity on a par with that of the best people-carriers. A range of powerful and efficient petrol and diesel engines and trim levels – including sporty GT Line and GT versions – will be available when it goes on sale next Spring. Features will include Peugeot's i-Cockpit with its compact steering wheel, a large 8 inch touchscreen dashboard and a 12.3 inch high-resolution digital head-up display. The French maker is hoping to entice buyers with a vast range of optional luxury and high-tech features including a multipoint massage system for the front seats, FOCAL* Premium Hi-Fi system, large panoramic opening glass roof and a 3D connected navigation system with TomTom* Traffic. Cutting-edge Advanced Driver Assistance Systems will also be available with an arsenal of safety features including Advanced Grip Control with Hill Assist Descent Control (HADC), Automatic Emergency Braking System (AEB), Distance Alert, Active Lane Keeping Assistance (LKA), Driver attention warning, Smart Beam Assistance, Speed sign recognition and speed suggestion, Adaptive cruise control with stop feature on automatic gearbox versions, Active blind spot monitoring, Park Assist and Visio Park (360° vision) A variety of seating configurations will cater for a wide range of needs with three separate, folding seats in the second row, each fully adjustable, plus two removable, separate, folding seats in the third row. In addition Peugeot claims that the 5008 will have the biggest boot capacity in its class with 1060 litres of available space. In addition the 5008 can be specified with a foldable front passenger seat to allow owners to transport especially long loads up to 3.20m and a practical hands-free, motorised tailgate. And for those who want to leave the car behind and go looking for two wheeled adventure the 5008 provides an innovative mobility solution with an optional fitting which has been specially designed to integrate an electrically assisted e-Kick folding scooter or e-Bike eF01, a new electrically assisted portable bicycle, in the load area. The 5008 is due to be unveiled at the Paris Motor Show later this month.

Sport, but with a smile on its face

SOMETIMES you time things just right.

Last week, I returned from a two-week break (did you miss me?), during which I was able to miss the hysteria that is Transfer Deadline Day and the tedium that is the international break. No great loss in either case.

It was slightly more unfortunate to not be around for Bedford Blues' first couple of games of the season, despite the results, but getting back in the country did at least coincide with the start of the most uplifting event sport has to offer.

You're reading this on the day it all finishes, in which case the Paralympics really does prove that time does fly when you're having fun.

First of all an admission: I am one of those that jumped on the Paralympic bandwagon in 2012.

I was aware of them before and had caught some of the action in previous Games, but it wasn't something that I went out of my way to watch, nor was it something broadcasters really pushed in truth.

London was the first to bring about blanket coverage and it opened a lot of people's eyes – the fact that Great Britain were every bit as successful as they had been in the Olympics helped draw in viewers, but once we were drawn in, we were all hooked.

It's meant that many of us have tuned in again to watch the action from Rio and some of it has been simply jaw-dropping – where else would you see someone playing table tennis with the paddle in his mouth?

How many of us can jump over six feet in the air with two legs, let alone one? Honestly, if you haven't seen the footage of the men's T42 high jump, do find it online. You won't regret it.

We've also had swimmers with no arms making the backstroke look effortless, an eight-foot Iranian playing sitting volleyball and crowds being hushed into silence while 4x100m relays for blind athletes take place.

Like the Olympics last month, some of the heroes of 2012 returned to the lime-light, such as Hannah Cockcroft, Dame Sarah Storey and Jonnie Peacock.

Mind you, none of Team GB won gold in two different sports as Kadeena Cox has in the last week. Surely there can't be too many greater all-round athletes than her in this country at the moment?

It's given us some inspiring stories, like Jeanette

ALL-ROUND GREAT: Great Britain's Kadeena Cox won gold medals in two different sports in Rio – cycling and athletics – becoming the first Paralympian from this country to achieve that feat since 1984

Chippington winning gold in canoeing 28 years after claiming silver in the pool at Seoul in 1988 and some enduring images, like 15-year-old Ellie Robinson's 'gangster' entrance before winning the women's S6 50m butterfly.

And of course we have to give a mention to Bedford's Julie Rogers, who is taking part in her second Paralympics at the age of 17 – a stunning achievement.

But what I like most about the Paralympics is that it's almost impossible to watch them without a smile on your face. There probably isn't any other sporting event you can say that about.

Improved Luton make it back-to-back victories

RUGBY UNION

Luton RFC made it two from two in Midlands Two, beating Belgrave 28-18 in a fiercely competitive home game at Newlands Road.

"I think it was a vast improvement on last week," said Luton manager Steve Evans. "I think the weather helped in all honesty, but also the discipline and the ethos of the team is coming together, we're fusing really well; we're thrilled."

Aidan Kenny, Ryan Staff and David Hamm all touched down for Luton, and Rik Hobbs converted twice and added three conversions to secure the win for the home side.

"Rik Hobbs' kicking was just exceptional," said Evans, "he's got a golden boot, but the drive of the team, our ambition to succeed is clear – we're really looking to make our mark on this league."

Stockwood Park were beaten 45-15 on the road at Harpenden in London Two yesterday, leaving them still without a victory in their new division having been promoted up out of the Midlands leagues last year. "They're a good side," said Park Chairman Mark Lovell, "they're one of the favourites in this league, and we were in the game for the first hour, but we got a man sin-binned midway through the second half and the game got away from us a bit."

Tom Childs scored twice for Park in the first half, and Matt Jones added another after the restart, as Stockwood turned around 24-10 behind at the break.

"We take our hats off to them [Harpenden] they deserved to win," said Lovell.

In Midlands Three, Dunstablians were narrowly beaten 15-14 by St Ives, despite controlling large periods of the game.

Scott Warren and Stuart Hall crossed for the Dees on an afternoon they'll want to forget.

"I'm not sure how we didn't win," said Warren. "We deserved more, it's frustrating, a string of penalties ultimately cost us the game."

AFC's FA Cup run ends with a home thrashing

THE FA Cup was back in action yesterday, with AFC Dunstable having no luck against opposition two tiers above them in the football pyramid.

Dunstable welcomed National League South side Hampton and Richmond Borough to Creasey Park and were well beaten, with the visitors scoring seven goals to Dunstable's one.

The Beavers started as they meant to carry on, opening the scoring with just nine minutes on the clock through Nathan Collier, before Jamal Lowe doubled their lead soon after the restart. They were four to the good with 38 minutes gone, with Nicke Kabamba grabbing the third before Lowe added his second of the game.

The OD's got a goal back before the break through Terry Griffiths, but they were already staring defeat in the face.

The visitors put Dunstable to the sword after the restart, with Manny Williams ending any slim hope of a comeback with his 48th minute goal.

Tom Jelley netted a sixth soon after, before Kabamba completed the rout with his second goal of the game.

Barton Rovers had no better luck in their FA Cup clash, narrowly losing 1-0 to Hastings United, ending their cup run.

Barton started well and had the first real chance of the game, smashing the ball off the bar with 36 gone.

However, Simon Johnson's 78th minute goal was enough to see Hastings progress.

I'd rest duo again - Jones

CAMEO ROLE: Danny Hylton had to settle for a place on the bench

LUTON manager Nathan Jones suggested he'll think twice about resting strike partnership Danny Hylton and Jack Marriott again after his side drew a blank in a disappointing 2-0 defeat at Crawley.

The Hatters boss made three changes by also dropping Pelly-Ruddock Mpanzu to bench and handing first Football League starts this term to Isaac Vassell, Josh McQuoid and Jonathan Smith.

None of the trio finished the game as Hylton and Marriott – with seven goals between them already this term – were introduced in the 61st minute to try to rescue the League Two contest, with Town 1-0 down thanks to a first half James Collins header.

Hylton played in a mask to protect a cracked cheekbone and he was adjudged to have fouled keeper Glenn Morris in the build-up to a late disallowed Marriott goal that would have levelled the scores, before an Enzo Bollewijn stoppage time sucker punch.

Talking of his team selection, Jones said: "Danny has had to wear a mask. He hasn't trained since Thursday because he's got a crack, so we've had to look after him. I didn't want to use him, if I'm honest, because he has that crack.

"And the way he is, the way he plays and trains, he's always liable to do something, so I didn't really want to use him.

"The other two [Vassell and McQuoid] have been flying, so I thought I'd give them an opportunity." Vassell and McQuoid had impressed in last month's Checkatrade Trophy win at Gillingham, but it didn't click in a first half at Crawley where Luton dominated and created chances, but didn't register one on target.

Jones said: "They've been doing well in training. I'm not going to gauge them just on today. It didn't quite come off but they worked hard. They looked a certain type of threat but it looks bad because obviously you've replaced probably the top two in the league, for me. It's something we had to do."

Asked if placing Marriott on the bench was a case of resting the 22-year-old striker, Jones said: "It is. They're a partnership together, those two. Isaac would have probably replaced [Hylton] and then Josh has been chomping at the bit to play, so you've got to keep them involved and keep everyone interested.

"But the most important thing for us is to get back to winning games. That's what we'll now have to try to do."

Hatters misery at Crawley

FOOTBALL

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

CRAWLEY TOWN 2
LUTON TOWN 0

A CHANGE is as good as a rest, goes the old proverb, but at Crawley it didn't do a thing to halt the Hatters' losing feeling.

Time off for two of Town's top scorers – Danny Hylton and Jack Marriott – didn't pay-off and with the seven-goal strike pair joined by Pelly-Ruddock Mpanzu on the bench, so much potency was lost.

It was telling that by the 71st minute, and with the Hatters 1-0 down to a James Collins first half header, all of manager Nathan Jones' three changes – Isaac Vassell, Josh McQuoid and Jonathan Smith – had all departed and the forwards were thrown on for a rescue mission, but they couldn't revive the visitors' verve of a fortnight ago.

To be fair to their boss, wholesale changes in the Checktrade Trophy win at Gillingham worked. Here at a stadium bearing the same sponsor's name, it didn't, even though two were forced upon him after Hylton cracked his cheekbone against Grimsby and Glenn Rea injured his medial knee ligament in training.

Luton shaded the first half without being spectacular but Vassell, Cameron McGeehan, McQuoid and Jordan Cook all failed to hit the target before they were sucker punched with a 43rd minute Collins diving header, the effects of which they didn't recover from until the final knockings. Even then, they went in search of a leveller without really threatening.

Marriott had the ball in the net in stoppage time only for the linesman to rule it out for a

TOWN STRUGGLE: Isaac Vassell was one of the players brought in by the Hatters

Hylton foul on goalkeeper Glenn Morris in the build-up, while an Enzo Boldewijn breakaway goal at the death added a unflattering sheen to the scoreline.

But so much will point to those three changes to the side that lost against Grimsby last week, that saw first Football League starts this term for McQuoid, Smith and Vassell.

It wasn't that the replacements did anything wrong, but it's a tough ask to expect an instant rapport and nothing clicked for them or their team-mates. Still, there were goalscorers on the pitch but only a fizzing long range volley from McGeehan had keeper Glenn Morris scrambling across his line, while Cook wasted a McQuoid byline cutback in even more disappointing fashion. Both were wide of the mark, much like Luton's afternoon.

A brave intervention from Christian Walton in the Hatters goal denied Collins, which was as close as the hosts came before they eventually broke the deadlock against the run of play, just before half time. Lewis Young crossed, Collins stooped low to head beyond the dive of Walton and the Hatters never recovered.

Marriott and a masked Hylton replaced Vassell and McQuoid just after the hour, but only with five minutes to go did Luton threaten the home goal again, Johnny Mullins, Sheehan's and Marriott were all denied by conventional means before the latter found a raised flag had ended any hope of a point.

With Luton's unanswered protestations still ringing in referee Gavin Ward's ears, Boldewijn raced clear and dinked over the outrushing Walton to seal a second straight defeat.

It's a change of fortunes, which needs quick solution.
